

ISO 22301 Business Continuity Management Internal Auditor

What is it?

Keep up with the latest developments in business continuity management and make sure your organization stays ISO 22301 compliant with our internal auditor training course. Learn how to complete each stage of the internal audit process, by understanding the requirements of the standard within an audit. Identify areas that need improving to achieve an effective business continuity management system in line with best practice.

Why do I need it?

Audits are critical to continually improving your ISO 22301 business continuity management system. They help you maintain compliance with the standard and protect your business operations from the threats most likely to impact your organization. Internal audits allow experts to assess your business continuity framework and their findings help you identify existing or potential threats, giving you confidence to prepare effectively for challenging circumstances.

How will I benefit?

With qualified ISO 22301 internal auditors working in your organization you will gain confidence in how to maintain your ISO 22301 certification. You will be able to demonstrate effective business continuity management during times of disruption to gain confidence and enhance your organization's reputation.

What will I learn?

This two-day workshop will help you learn the scope and requirements of ISO 22301 in the context of an audit and how to manage every stage of the audit process. You will learn how to plan, conduct and report on an ISO 22301 internal audit and how to recommend improvements to a business continuity management system.
