

BS OHSAS 18001 to ISO 14001 Auditor Conversion Course

What is it?

ISO 14001 Environmental Management Systems allows your business to grow and succeed while reducing its impact on the environment. The way you monitor the system's performance is critical to meeting ISO 14001 requirements. And an internal audit allows you to assess your management system in detail.

Why do I need it?

Qualifying as an ISO 14001 internal auditor means you can help your business make sure its environmental processes remain effective. You can also help to continually improve them and give your business maximum benefit. This course provides delegates with the tools and techniques to apply their existing auditor knowledge to the ISO 14001 management system standard.

How will I benefit?

To enable delegates to understand environmental issues and identify key differences between OH&S and EMS. You will be able to understand the requirements of ISO 14001 and explore examples of environmental aspects and impacts. Our tutors will provide you with the knowledge to simplify environmental legislation, review methods for determining significance and capitalize on existing auditing experience using a case study
