

ISO/IEC 27001 Lead Auditor Course

(IRCA Certified Course A17287)

Become a qualified business leader by completing our ISO 27001 Lead Auditor Training Course. Gain skills to implement a robust Information Security Management System (ISMS) and empower your colleagues to support and manage information security.

Our information security training is vital to stakeholder confidence, data protection and ISO 27001 compliance and the responsibility to effectively audit this lies in your hands. We can help you gain the confidence to build a culture of information security within your business.

This intensive five-day course will equip Lead Auditors with tools to complete the ISO 27001: 2005 qualification process. Through targeted training you will learn how to plan, manage and implement an ISMS audit programme. Our specialist trainers will ensure you can provide your business with the practical help and information required to achieve international certification.
