

Contents

Foreword	vii
Introduction	ix
1. Establishing a successful exercise programme	1
Introduction	1
The BCM lifecycle	2
What can exercising achieve?	5
How to develop the exercise programme	6
The exercise programme management team	6
The exercise programme document	7
Benefits of a successful exercise programme	8
How much is this going to cost?	9
Possible problems	11
2. Choosing the right type of exercise	12
Exercising is not training	12
Types of exercises	12
Factors to consider	16
Case study – Testing the communications team	20
I want to stage a similar exercise. Is there anything else I need to know?	27
3. Planning the exercise	29
Getting started	29
Exercise planning group	29
Scoping the exercise	29
Developing the MEL	33
Enhancing the player experience	37
Administration and logistics	37
Exercise briefings and participant instructions	38
Diary planning and meetings	38
Command and control preparation	38

Contents

---

Communication plan	39
Final thoughts	41
What benefits have I derived from this case study?	47
4. Delivering the exercise	49
The importance of an effective start	49
Final preparations	49
Players' briefing	51
Executive briefing	53
Facilitator briefing	53
Scenario cell manager	55
Scenario cell: briefing and final checks	55
Visitors and observers	58
During the exercise	58
Stopping the exercise	62
Post exercise debrief	62
Participant's feedback form	64
Facilitator's debrief	64
Before you go	64
5. Reporting and evaluation	77
Writing the exercise report	77
Key issues	77
The report	79
Main recommendations or action plan	86
Presentation	86
Glossary of terms and abbreviations	99