Introducing ISO 44001

Collaborative Business Relationship Management
Collaborative business relationship management systems can deliver a wide range of benefits to enhance competitiveness and performance:

- Improved engagement and efficiencies
- Stronger processes
- Improved risk management
- Enhanced skills
- Sustainable relationships

ISO 44001 started life as PAS 11000 Collaborative business relationships in November 2006. It became a British Standard, BS 11000, in 2010 and now, it has evolved into an international standard to help organizations, to build and develop effective competitive business relationships based upon a collaborative approach.

The standard is applicable to private and public organizations of all sizes, from large multinational corporations and government organizations, to non-profit organizations and micro/small businesses. It can be used to manage relationships on several different levels whether your needs focus on a single application between operating divisions or more complex relationships like consortia and joint ventures.
