Why train with us?

We understand that business success starts with people and we've assessed thousands of businesses, so we can genuinely benchmark performance. We've also trained many auditors who carry out these assessments so we can take you from beginner to certification to expert quickly. Wherever you are on your learning journey, we can tailor training to you and your business.

Our Royal Charter

The history of Royal Charters dates back to the 13th century and are granted by the British Monarch on the recommendation from the UK Privy Council. The original purpose of a Royal Charter was to create public or private corporations (including towns and cities), and to define their specific privileges and purpose.

Today, Royal Charters are given to public service bodies that work for the public interest. On 22 April 1929, the Engineering Standards Committee was granted a Royal Charter. The Charter was amended in 1931 changing the name to The British Standards Institution.

The Royal Charter states our functions as a standards body, as well as our ability to offer training, testing and certification services.

By Royal Charter

The Charter also outlines aspects of how we are to be governed, such as; membership, the conduct of General Meetings and the composition of the Board.
