

Introduction ISO 14001:2004 to ISO 14001:2015 training course

Are you already familiar with ISO 14001:2004 and want to find out what has changed in the transition to ISO 14001:2015?

This one day course is particularly valuable for individuals directly involved in the planning, implementing, maintaining or auditing of an Environmental Management System (EMS).

Why do I need it?

An experienced tutor will describe the new ISO (high level) structure and what this means for an organization's EMS. You will also learn about differences between ISO 14001:2004 and ISO 14001:2015, while explaining the impact of additions and amendments contained within the new standard.

How will I benefit?

- Learn how to make the transition from ISO 14001:2004 to ISO 14001:2015
- Identify areas that need to change in your current EMS
- Inform others about the requirements of ISO 14001:2015

Who should attend?

- Environmental Managers and Consultants
- Organizations that are currently certified to ISO 14001:2004
- Organizations currently developing systems for certification to ISO 14001
- Management system practitioners who will be converting to ISO 14001:2015
- Internal and external management system auditors who will be auditing to ISO 14001:2015
- People interested in finding out how ISO 14001:2015 differs from its 2004 version

What will I learn?

- The framework for a generic management system
- The new and revised terms and definitions
- New requirements relating to Context, Leadership, Planning and Support in Annex SL Appendix 2
- Changes in EMS specific requirements arising as a result of transitioning from ISO 14001:2008 to ISO 14001:2015
- The BSI certification transition arrangements
