Steps to Becoming a CRisP

Certified Risk Professional

CRisP
CERTIFIED RISK PROFESSIONAL
Business Continuity Risk Management

bsi.

What is CRisP?

CRisP (Certified Risk Professional) is a personal certification programme focusing on providing in-depth implementation knowledge on ISO 31000 and ISO 22301 management systems. This course aims at equipping professionals with the knowledge and skills essential to build, operate and improve a risk management framework. It provides in-depth practical guidance about the principles, a structured approach to obtain measurable and repeatable results. The participants undergo numerous activities to demonstrate their learning of the concept and this is facilitated by an experienced trainer from relevant industry.

At the end of the course, participants write an exam and successful clearance earns them personal certification.

Why it is important?

Effective and ongoing management of business risks is vital for the long term existence of an organisation in view of the rapidly changing internal and external environments. Numerous incidents have shown that there is a firm linkage between achieving business objectives and controlling the risks and opportunities that affect those objectives. Organisations need to embed a framework in which decision making at all levels takes into account the inherent risks and opportunities.

1 Who should become Certified Risk Professional?
