Top tips on making ISO 14001 effective for you

Every year we have interactions with tens of thousands of clients. Here are their top tips.

Top management commitment is key to making this a success.

"...ensure that your top management team really understands the importance of leadership in the new standard". Liz Collett, Overbury, UK Fit-out and Refurbishment business

Keep staff informed of what's going on, create a team or assign a champion, as this will increase motivation. This could include a well communicated plan of activities and timescales.

"When we decided to implement the new standard, we assigned an internal champion of the standard inside the organization". Ronald Tse, Ribose, Hong Kong cloud service provider

Think about how different departments work together to avoid silos. Make sure the organization works as a team for the benefit of customers and the organization.

"...all of our employees now understand the key metrics and the success factors". Maxime Clerck, Vortex Conseils, Canadian consultancy business

Review systems, policies, procedures and processes you have in place – you may already do much of what's in the standard and make it work for your business.

"There's a requirement in the new standard to document your EMS and that really encouraged us to document processes that have been in place for many years. This enabled the whole business to see, kind of, how the EMS fits together and the part they play in it". Liz Collett, Overbury, UK fit-out and refurbishment business

Speak to your customers and suppliers. They may be able to suggest improvements and give feedback on your service.

"...we had a brainstorming session and absolutely went through everything we could think of, pulling everyone's ideas in and then relating them to the business". Toby Robins, Wiles Greenworld, UK sustainable office supply and stationary provider

Train your staff to carry out internal audits. This can help with their understanding, but it could also provide valuable feedback on potential problems or opportunities for improvement.

"This course complemented my current knowledge very well. Emphasis on requirements of ISO 14001 was very useful and will undoubtedly help with implementation". Stephanie Baker, PH Medisavers Ltd, UK medical glove manufacturer

And finally, when you gain certification celebrate your achievement and use the BSI Assurance Mark on your literature, website and promotional material.
