Selling into Canada: Important information

From January 2019, Health Canada will terminate their current CMDCAS program and only accept Medical Device Single Audit Program (MDSAP) certificates. It is vital that you make the transition from CMDCAS to MDSAP if you wish to continue selling devices into the Canadian Market.

If you are currently certified to CMDCAS, please complete our short survey to help us understand what possible information Certification Bodies, such as BSI, can provide to you during this critical transition.

Learn more about MDSAP

If you would like to learn more about MDSAP, consider our new training course, Medical Device Single Audit Program: Fundamentals and Readiness. This two day course provides an understanding of how the Program works, allowing you to interpret how to implement the Program effectively in your organisation.
