

AI Literacy Learning Programmes

Access practical tools and learning that supports the responsible use of AI

AI brings both opportunity and responsibility

It's critical that organizations ensure their employees can use AI confidently, ethically, and in line with policies and regulations.

Beyond using tools, it's about preparing the workforce for new ways of working while continuing to value human judgment, communication, and problem-solving.

Our AI Literacy Learning Programmes are designed to support you and your teams with role-relevant learning that supports responsible leadership, practical skills, and alignment with compliance, innovation, and workforce goals.

Reduce risk, ensure readiness, and empower employees at every level

Upskill yourself or deliver relevant learning across the workforce, via your Learning Management System (LMS).

Our AI Literacy courses are designed to be adapted to your needs.
